At Chuy's we don't take anything seriously...except our food.

The food at Chuy's represents our total commitment to provide unique Tex-Mex cuisine using only the freshest of ingredients & free of any chemicals or added preservatives. We go to great lengths (well, . . .great distances) to bring authentic flavors from throughout the Southwest. We've "borrowed" & improved a number of family recipes from the Valley to the Davis Mountains & beyond. And we use the authentic, original ingredients those recipes call for. For instance, our green chiles come from Hatch, New Mexico & our Blue Corn Tortillas are made from actual blue Indian Corn masa. Our beef isn't just any old beef. . .it's ground sirloin, & our chickens. . .well you get the idea. We take our food very seriously. Our goal is to bring you the best, healthiest Tex-Mex food on the entire planet. So we always have an open ear & an open mind. If you have a comment or an idea, write to Chuy's Opco, Inc., 1623 Toomey Road, Austin, Texas 78704, or e-mail to hev@chuys.com.
